

WHEREAS, The South Dakota Department of Elementary School Principals is dedicated to the improvement of educational opportunities for all children in South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, The Department, which seeks to enhance the profession of education by assisting principals to improve their skills and services, represents the elementary school principals in South Dakota in their legitimate efforts to enhance their leadership role among all educators; and,

WHEREAS, the annual conference of SDDESP, being held in Deadwood, South Dakota on May 9, 10, and 11, 1973, continues to pursue these purposes as it evaluates the innovative and practical system of education:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 10, 1973, as in South Dakota, and urge all citizens of our State to recognize the contribution which those principals make to the education of today's children who will form tomorrow's society.

SOUTH DAKOTA DEPARTMENT OF ELEMENTARY SCHOOL PRINCIPALS DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 13th day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-three.

RICHARD F. KNEIP, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

LORNA B. HERSETH, SECRETARY OF STATE
